Pastoral

The Teacher is responsible for:

- Participating in Year Level meetings and in Year Level activities
- Responding efficiently and effectively to student pastoral care issues
- Working with others to maintain a culture of inclusiveness and mutual respect that values the unique nature of each individual
- Maintaining an understanding of, and developing responses to, the special learning needs of all students
- Understanding, supporting and utilising School policies regarding student management and harassment
- Participating in the management of students with allergies and other medical or psychological disorders
- Attending services of worship and assemblies of students as requested and supporting the Orthodox Christian Studies Program of the School.

General Duties

All Teachers at Oakleigh Grammar are responsible for:

- Maintaining effective, positive and cohesive working relationships with all members of the School community
- Attending all timetabled lessons and other timetabled duties
- Maintaining accurate records of student attendance using the technology adopted by the School
- Completing administrative tasks, accurately and in a timely manner, including record keeping, using the technology adopted by the School
- Diligently undertaking yard duty and other supervision duties as requested
- Taking 'extra' classes as negotiated (only a reasonable number per week as determined by mutual agreement)
- Attending staff meetings, pastoral meetings and other learning area meetings and briefings
- Attending Presentation Night, Open Day and staff professional development activities
- Supporting and complying with relevant legislative/regulatory requirements such as Occupational Health and Safety, Equal Opportunity, Discrimination, Harassment and Privacy
- Supporting and complying with Oakleigh Grammar's policies and procedures as detailed on the Oakleigh Grammar Intranet
- Undertaking other duties, which from time to time may reasonably be required, within the scope of the classroom teacher's role as directed by the Principal or his/her delegate.

Co-Curricular

The School has a co-curricular program. Oakleigh Grammar feels this is an essential element of the education for each student. The School does not see this as an 'extra-curricular' program but rather as part of the expectation for all students. A teacher at Oakleigh Grammar is encouraged to participate in two co-curricular activities per year. These co-curricular activities could include coaching sport, drama and debating.

Qualification and Skills

Required

- Depth of knowledge of the relevant subject area

Attributes

- Compassion, patience, initiative and flexibility
- Capacity to work as part of a team
- Capacity to model good leadership
- Willingness to take part in School's co-curricular program
- Demonstrated commitment to professional and lifelong learning
- Commitment to uphold and contribute to the Orthodox ethos of the School
- Capacity and willingness to contribute to the vision and mission of Oakleigh Grammar

This Position Description is a guide only. The Principal may assign duties for this position at his discretion depending on the operational needs of the School.

Child Safe Standards

Oakleigh Grammar has a zero-tolerance approach to child abuse. The School must comply with the minimum standard for the care, safety and welfare of students as detailed in the child safe standards specified by Ministerial Order No. 1359.

Oakleigh Grammar is a Child Safe School and we are committed to ensuring a culture of child safety. We provide a safe environment for every child and student. All students have a right to feel safe and to be safe. We want our students to be secure, happy and empowered. We support and respect all children, from all cultural backgrounds and faiths.

Our School is committed to preventing child abuse and identifying risks early and removing and reducing these risks. This includes measures to actively maintain a safe school environment both during school hours and outside the school day.

All Oakleigh Grammar employees and volunteers have a legal and moral responsibility to respond to situations involving child abuse and neglect including mandatory reporting of abuse or suspected abuse.

In addition, Oakleigh Grammar is committed to the safety of children from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, and to provide a safe environment for children with a disability.

We also have specific policies, procedures and training in place that support the Board of Management, Leadership Team, Teachers, Staff and Volunteers, to achieve this important outcome of a child safe school.

All staff employed by the School are required to:

- Show evidence of a current Victorian Institute of Teachers Registration (or Provisional Registration) or Working with Children Check, as required.
- Commit to the School's Staff Conduct and Professional Boundaries Policy and Mandatory Reporting Policy by way of reading and taking part in an on-line questionnaire each year.
- Take part in child safe school training each year including the on-line Mandatory Reporting e-Learning Module.
